Nonfiction Author Spotlight: James McBride

A recipient of the National Book Award, McBride has written both nonfiction and fictional works.

According to the publisher, McBride's latest book, Kill 'em and Leave: Searching for the Real James Brown, "illuminates not only our understanding of this immensely troubled, misunderstood, and complicated soul genius but the ways in which our cultural heritage has been shaped by Brown's legacy."

McBride's is perhaps best known for his earlier nonfiction work, The Color of Water, which the publisher describes as "a haunting meditation on race and identity, and a lyrical valentine to a mother from her son."

McBride's fictional works include The Good Lord Bird, Miracle at St. Anna, and Song Yet Sung.
