Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

Things You Save in a Fire

by Katherine Center

"A heartfelt and healing tour-de-force about the strength of vulnerability, the nourishing magic of forgiveness, and the life-changing power of defining courage, at last, for yourself."

Inland

by Tea Obreht

"In the lawless, drought-ridden lands of the Arizona Territory in 1893, two extraordinary lives unfold. . . . Mythical, lyrical, and sweeping in scope, Inland is grounded in true but little-known history."

A Door in the Earth

by Amy Waldman

"Waldman, who reported from Afghanistan for the New York Times after 9/11, has created a taut, propulsive novel about power, perspective, and idealism, brushing aside the dust of America's longest-standing war to reveal the complicated truths beneath."

Fiction Author Spotlight: Donna Andrews

This author specializes in quirky and cozy mysteries with a fair amount of offbeat humor and sharp wit, especially in her ongoing Meg Langslow series. Some of her most popular titles include:

- Die Like an Eagle
- Duck the Halls
- Gone Gull!
- The Hen of the Baskervilles
- The Good, the Bad, and the Emus
- How the Finch Stole Christmas!
- Lark! The Herald Angels Sing
- Lord of the Wings
- The Real Macaw
- Some Like it Hawk
- Toucan Keep a Secret

Andrews' latest Meg Langslow title (the 25th in this series), is Terns of Endearment, which takes place on a cruise line broken down in the Bermuda Triangle. When two people go missing, it becomes a "race against the clock" to solve those mysteries before the ship returns to shore.

Nonfiction Spotlight: Alexandra Fuller

This internationally acclaimed writer leads readers through a range of complex severities: Rhodesian war, experiences in Zambia, Kenya, and Milawi, as well as the lives of her parents and others. Her titles include:

Cocktail Hour Under the Tree of Forgetfulness

Don't Let's Go to the Dogs Tonight: An African Childhood

Leaving Before the Rains Come

Scribbling the Cat: Travels with an African Soldier

With her latest book, Travel Light, Move Fast, Fuller is described (by the publisher) as "a master of time and memory" who "moves seamlessly between the days and months following her father's death, as she and her mother return to his farm with his ashes and contend with his overwhelming absence, and her childhood spent running after him in southern and central Africa. Writing with reverent irreverence of the rollicking grand misadventures of her mother and father, bursting with pandemonium and tragedy, Fuller takes their insatiable appetite for life to heart."
