Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

Orchid and the Wasp by Caoilinn Hughes

"An unforgettable young woman navigates Dublin, London and New York, striving to build a life raft for her loved-ones amidst economic and familial collapse."

An Ocean of Minutes by Thea Lim

"In the vein of The Time Traveler's Wife and Station Eleven, a sweeping literary love story about two people who are at once mere weeks and many years apart."

The Late Bloomers' Club by Louise Miller

"A delightful novel about two headstrong sisters, a small town's efforts to do right by the community, and the power of a lost dog to summon true love."

Fiction Author Spotlight: Timothy Zahn

This sci-fi / space opera specialist is always prepared to take readers to other worlds – even other galaxies, especially one from “a long time ago” and “far, far away” (yes, Star Wars). Popular Star Wars “Legends” titles by Zahn include:

Allegiance (2007)
Choices of One (2011)
Dark Force Rising (Thrawn 2; 1998)
Heir to the Empire (Thrawn 1; 1996)
The Last Command (Thrawn 3; 1999)
Scoundrels (2012)

His latest novel, Thrawn: Alliances, is a sequel to the “new canon” Thrawn novel (2017). In it, “Grand Admiral Thrawn and Darth Vader team up against a threat to the Empire.”

*Many older Star Wars stories are now called “legends,” while newer novels (after April 2014) are generally treated as canonical. See this website for details: starwars.wikia.com/wiki/Star_Wars_Legends

July 2018 Nonfiction Highlights...

Wonderful Mr. Willughby
by Tim Birkhead
“From the author of Bird Sense, a biography of Francis Willughby, the man who pulled the study of birds out of the dark ages and formed the foundations of modern ornithology.”

The Poisoned City
by Anna Clark
“In the first full account of this American tragedy, The Poisoned City recounts the gripping story of Flint’s poisoned water through the people who caused it, suffered from it, and exposed it.”

Hooked on Hollywood
by Leonard Maltin
“Leonard Maltin’s love of movies and vast knowledge about their history shines through from the first page to the last in this unique volume, which includes 150 rare photos and a comprehensive index.”

The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela
by Nelson Mandela
“255 of these letters, many of which have never been published, provide exceptional insight on how Mandela maintained his inner spirits while living in almost complete isolation, and how he engaged with an outside world that became increasingly outraged by his plight.”

The Strange Case of Dr. Couney
by Dawn Raffel
“The extraordinary tale of how a mysterious immigrant ‘doctor’ became the revolutionary innovator of saving premature babies – by placing them in incubators in World’s Fair side shows and on Coney Island and Atlantic City.”

Barons of the Sea
by Steven Ujifusa
“In the grand tradition of David McCullough and Ron Chernow, the sweeping story of the nineteenth-century American dynasties who battled for dominance of the tea and opium trades.”

Nonfiction Author Spotlight: Helen Scales

This marine biologist, broadcaster, and writer draws from her vast knowledge of oceanic life. Her most recent title is Eye of the Shoal: A Fishwatcher's Guide to Life, the Ocean and Everything.

Some more details from the official description of this book: “In this book, Scales shares the secrets of fish, unhitching them from their reputation as cold, unknowable beasts and reinventing them as clever, emotional, singing, thoughtful creatures, and challenging readers to rethink these animals.”

Other titles by Scales include:

Poseidon's Steed: The Story of Seahorses, from Myth to Reality

Spirals in Time: The Secret Life and Curious Afterlife of Seashells
