Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

The Beasts of Paris

by Stef Penney
“A dazzling, panoramic novel of love and survival set during the Siege of Paris in 1870. Although set in the nineteenth century, the novel explores questions that are uniquely contemporary: issues of gender, sexuality, inequality, and race.”

The Librarianist by Patrick deWitt

“A From bestselling and award-winning author Patrick deWitt comes the story of Bob Comet, a man who has lived his life through and for literature, unaware that his own experience is a poignant and affecting narrative in itself.”

Summer Skies by Jenny Colgan

“New York Times bestselling author Jenny Colgan takes us to the gloriously windswept islands of northern Scotland, where we meet young Morag McGinty, who runs the puddle-jumper flights that serve the islands’ tiny but proudly feisty population.”

July 2023 Nonfiction Titles

Beastly by Keggie Carew

“From an award-winning nature writer, true stories of our shared planet, all its inhabitants, and the fascinating ways they connect in the net of life. Carew seeks to re-enthrall readers with the wild world, reframing our understanding of what it is like to be an animal and what our role is as humans.”

The Parrot and the Igloo by David Lipsky

“Lipsky masterfully traces the evolution of climate denial, exposing how it grew out of early efforts to build a network of untruth about products like aspirin and cigarettes. Featuring an indelible cast of heroes and villains, mavericks and swindlers, The Parrot and the Igloo delivers a real-life tragicomedy—one that captures the extraordinary dance of science, money, and the American character.”
