Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

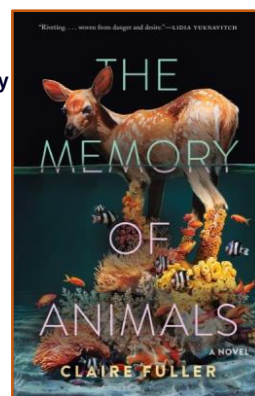

Banyan Moon by Thao Thai

"A stunning and deeply moving story of mothers and daughters, the things we inherit, and the lives we choose to make out of that inheritance."

The First Ladies by Marie Benedict and Victoria Christopher Murray

"A novel about the extraordinary partnership between First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt and civil rights activist Mary McLeod Bethune—an unlikely friendship that changed the world."

The Memory of Animals by Claire Fuller

"An ambitious, deeply imagined work of survival and suspense, grief and hope, consequences and connectedness that asks what truly defines us--and the lengths we will go to rescue ourselves and those we love."

June 2023 Nonfiction Titles

Arguing for a Better World
by Arianne Shahvisi

"In Arguing for a Better World, philosopher Arianne Shahvisi shows us how to work through thorny moral questions by examining their parts in broad daylight, equipping us to not only identify our own positions but to defend them as well. This book demonstrates the relevance of philosophy to our everyday lives, and offers some clear-eyed tools to those who want to learn how to better fight for justice and liberation for all."

Random Acts of Medicine

by Anupam B. Jena and Christopher Worsham

"A groundbreaking book at the intersection of health and economics, revealing the hidden side of medicine and how unexpected—but predictable—events can profoundly affect our health."
