Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

The City and Its Uncertain Walls
by Haruki Murakami
“From the bestselling author of Norwegian Wood and Hard-Boiled Wonderland and the End of the World comes a love story, a quest, an ode to books and to the libraries that house them, and a parable for our peculiar times.”

The Magnificent Ruins
by Nayantara Roy
“A young Indian American book editor inherits her estranged family’s ancestral home—and their long-buried secrets.”

Water Finds a Way
by Meghan Perry
“On her quest for home, Blake must confront a daunting question: where does she belong? This is a book for readers who enjoy the believable eccentricity a small town offers. And for those who believe in the redemption of the sea and hard work..”

November 2024 Nonfiction Titles

Blues in Stereo by Langston Hughes

“From Harlem Renaissance poet Langston Hughes, a stunning collection of early works—both polished poems and raw, unfinished, work-in-progress written from 1921-1927—curated by award winning poet and National Book Award finalist, Danez Smith.”

The Icon and the Idealist by Stephanie Gorton

“A riveting history about the little-known rivalry between Margaret Sanger and Mary Ware Dennett that profoundly shaped reproductive rights in America. Brimming with insight and compelling portraits of women’s struggles throughout the twentieth century, The Icon and the Idealist is a comprehensive history of a radical cultural movement.”
