Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

Tell Tale
by Jeffrey Archer
“Archer returns with his eagerly-awaited, brand-new collection, a fascinating, exciting and sometimes poignant insight into people he has met, stories he has come across, and countries he has visited during the past ten years.”

Rules of Magic
by Alice Hoffman
“Thrilling and exquisite, real and fantastical, The Rules of Magic is a story about the power of love reminding us that the only remedy for being human is to be true to yourself.”

(This novel is a prequel to Practical Magic.)

Hiddensee
by Gregory Maguire

“Hiddensee recreates the backstory of The Nutcracker, reimagining how this entrancing creature came to be carved and how it magically guided an ailing little girl named Klara through a dreamy paradise on a snowy Christmas Eve.”

Fiction Author Spotlight: Isabel Allende

This Chilean-American bestselling novelist and short story writer (who also writes nonfiction) crafts moving stories which can, at times, swerve into “magic realism” or the fantastical. Much of Allende’s inspiration comes from South American history and her own life. Her most popular fiction includes:

City of the Beasts
Daughter of Fortune
Eva Luna
The House of Spirits
Ines of My Soul
Island Beneath the Sea
Paula
Zorro

Allende’s new novel, In the Midst of Winter, is about “three very different people brought together in a mesmerizing story that journeys from present-day Brooklyn to Guatemala in the recent past to 1970s Chile and Brazil.”
